The objective of the Competition is to create a calendar, the distribution of which is absolutely free, that could make people aware and make all of us, often "inhuman", understand that all animals have a great soul and strong feelings.

Our society should finally become conscious and identify them as bearers of rights.

The Competition is free and open to all who, with only a click, would like to share and distribute our very same philosophy.

The participants will have to send no more than three colour photographs, in jpeg digital format, that express the theme subject of the Competition.

The material has to reach the Competition Management by Friday 10th May by means of electronic mail at the following address: concorso@cane-gattoedintorni.it, in the subject field write: Photography Competition AnimAmoreAnimale 2014
